

57. BRÜCKMANN, FRANZ ERNST. Magnalia Dei in locis subterraneis Oder Unterirdische Schatz-Kammer aller Königreiche und Linder, in ausführlicher Beschreibung aller, mehr als MDC. Bergwercke Durch alle vier Welt-Theile . . . 2 parts in 1 vol. Title pages printed in red and black and with publisher's device, engr. front.-portrait, 36 (instead of 38) engr. plates of minerals and mines. Folio, contemp. vellum, lettered back. The Prince Liechtenstein copy. Braunschweig & Wolfenbüttel, 1727-1730. $350.00

Important work on mineralogy and mining; it contains two extensive sections on the mines of North and South America.
Not in Sabin.

58. BRUNO, VICENZO. Teatro de gl'in ventori di tune le cose. With engr. armorial vignette on title, a woodcut figure and woodcut initials. Last leaf slightly damaged. Folio. Contemp. red morocco. Naples, Tarquinio Longo, 1603. $48.00

Fine copy.

59. BRUNSCHWIG, HIERONYMUS. Liber de arte distulandi [sic] Simplicia et Composita. Das nūv buoch d' rechten kunst zu distillieren. Ouch von Marsilio Ficino vn anderen hochberempten Ertzte naturliche vn guote kunst. Title page with 2 large woodcuts (one showing Ficino, a youth and an elderly man, the other, two women and a man picking plants and a youth at a distilling oven), 5 large (one folding) and more than 230 smaller woodcuts, all nicely colored by a contemporary hand. Title page mended; a few small tears in some pages repaired; insignificant stains. Sm. folio. XIXth century colored paper over boards. Strassburg, Johann Grüninger, 1509. $350.00

A revised and partly abridged edition of the "Kleine Distillierbuch", with the addition of a translation of Ficino's De triplice vita by Johann Adelphus, which is not present in this copy, although it is mentioned in the title. It seems that Grüninger often sold Brunschwig's book alone. The copies in the Municipal Library of Strassburg and of the Army Medical Library in Washington also do not contain Ficino's tract.

Kristeller, Strassburg. Bicher-III., 119. Schmidt, Grüninger, 111. Muther, Deutsche Bücherill., 539. Sudhoff, Deutsche Mediz. Inkunabeln, 59a. Not in Ferguson, nor in the Osier and Cushing Collections.

I. This is the so-called "Kleine Distillierbuch" in its second edition, containing two chapters and the first German translation of Ficinus De triplici vita by Joh. Adelphus. The many woodcuts represent furnaces, plants, pharmacies, rural and other scenes. Sudhoff: Deutsche med. Inkunabeln 59e.

II. The rare First Edition of the "Grosse Distillierbuch," which is quite different from the smaller one above. For full description see Stillman. The Story of Early Chemistry, pp. 298/9. It is especially valuable for the about 200 woodcuts showing distillation apparatus, apothecaries' shops, medical subjects, etc.
A very fine copy in its original binding.

61. BRUSCHIO, FRANCISCO. Promachomachia latrochymica. In qua Chymiatriae praestantia aduersus Mysochymicum pugnando propugnatur. Occasione Medicarum Consultationum pro Nobilissimo Viro a celeberrimis Medicis conscriptarum. With the arms of Ferdinand Gonzaga, Duke of Mantua on title. Folio. Half cloth. Mantua, Aurelius & Ludovicus Osanna fratres, 1623. $68.00

First Edition, fine copy. Appended at the end is a treatise on kidney stones by the same author, dated at the end February 15, 1627, but without title page, captions, etc., running to 39 pp.

62. BUGGE, GÜNTHER. Der Alchimist. Die Geschichte Leonhard Thurneysers, des Goldmachers von Berlin. With illus. Berlin, (1944). $15.00

This edition was entirely destroyed by aerial bombardment and the book is therefore unobtainable.

Aldine anchor device on the title page and at end. Folio. Italian XVIIIth century vellum with gilt label on back. Venice, Sons of Aldus (Paolo Manuzio), 1545.

$750.00

The strongly alchemical contents of this beautiful Renaissance book, famous for its woodcuts have recently been pointed out by Linda Fierz-David's interpretation of The Dream of Poliphilo, (New York, 1950) with a Foreword by C. G. Jung.

The present second edition, in which the title is reset in a revised Italian translation, is generally considered to be even rarer than the first.

Renouard (A), p. 133, no 14; Essling III, 199; Plimpton (W), p. 113-114; Sander, 2057.

77. [-----]. Le Tableav des riches inventions, Couuertes du voile des feintes Amoureuses, qui sont representees dans le Songe de Poliphile ... par Beroalde. With engr. alchemical title and 175 woodcuts in the text. Large 4to. Full brown sheep, gilt. Paris, Mattieu Guillemont, 1600.

Translated by Beroald de Verville; rare. The frontispiece is definitely alchemical, reflecting the alchemical elements of the text.

78. COMENIUS (KOMENSKY), JAN AMOS. Physical ad Lvmen Divinvm reformatae Synopsis. Pocket 8vo. Contemp. old limp vellum. Paris, Olivare de Varennes, 1647.

84. DE RENOU, JEAN. Institutionvm Pharmaceuticarvm, Libri Qvinque Quibus accedunt de materia medica. Libri tres. Omnibus succedit Officina pharmaceutica. With engraved allegorical title and fine engraved full-page portrait of the author, both signed "L. Gaultier sculp. 1608," and engraved half-title to the antidotarium, signed "Iaspar Isac fecit," showing the interior of an apothecary's shop. Small tear in one leaf carefully repaired without loss of text. 4to. Contemp. vellum. Paris, Vidua Gulielmi de la Noue et Dionys de la Nouë, [1608]. $125.00
The Rare First Edition. Ferguson (II. 254) discusses the author, referring to a later edition, but this book was not in the Young collection. It is one of the earliest pharmacopoeias in a modern sense. William Cooper refers to it in his Catalogue of Chymical Books (1675). The engraving of the apothecary's shop is one of the finest contemporary engravings of the subject.
