First Edition. Fine copy of a rare book. With signature of Vauquelin des Yveteaux on title page.
Gwinne was first Gresham professor of physics at Oxford. This is an attack on the views held by Francis Anthony on "aurum potable". Gwinne seems to have upheld and represented the orthodox views of the College of Physicians with whom Anthony frequently tangled. Anthony's Apologia veritatis illuscentis pro Auro Potabile contains long epigrams against his detractor. STC 12550.
165. HAATAN, ABEL. Contribution a l'étude de l'Alchemie. Théorie et pratique du Grand Oeuvre. With 2 plates. 8vo. Cloth, orig. wrappers bound in. Paris, 1905. $6.00

The rare first English translation of the famous "Vitulus Aureus." It is particularly interesting in view of the fact that this anticipated William Cooper's translation which he abbreviated, and published under the title: "A Briefe of the Golden Calf, or the Worlds Idol" along with his "Philosophical Epitaph," London, 1675. Ferguson I, 383. Wing H 1410.

177. ----- . Microscopium Physiognomiae medicum, id est, Tractatus de Physiognomia. With 9 engr. portraits, 1 fold. table. Sm. 8vo. Fine full red morocco, richly gold stamped, gilt and tooled edges (backstrip repaired). Amsterdam, Jansson - Waesberg, 1676.
